- Merchandise will be accepted on consignment according to the following:

Item price	Consignment Period	Commission to Consignor
$3 – $24	8 weeks	40%
$25 – $49	4 months	40%
$50 & up	1 year	40%

- If flaws are found after an item is accepted for consignment, the price will be reduced or the article will be donated.
- If after 8 weeks (or as specified above) the article has not been sold, it shall become the property of Cream of the Crop. It is the responsibility of the consignor to retrieve any unsold articles when the consignment period has expired. If you intend to pick up unsold items, please keep a detailed list (type of article, size, color etc.) so that items can be found easily.
- Credit for items sold will be placed on consignor's account and is immediately available for use as store credit. Cash payment for items sold during a calendar month may be collected by the consignor on or after the first business day of the following calendar month.
- It is the consignor's responsibility to collect payment or credit for items sold. Accounts remaining inactive for a period of 2 years will become property of Cream of the Crop.
- Cream of the Crop maintains a safe and secure sales environment, but is not responsible for loss, theft, or damage to consignment items.

APPOINTMENTS ARE REQUIRED - 20 ITEM LIMIT PER APPOINTMENT
